TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
I. The Career of Wise's Brigade. An Address by General H. A. Wise	1
II. S. S. Prentiss and his Career, by Joseph G. Baldwin	22
III. Crutchfield's Artillery Brigade. Reports of its Operations April 3-6, 1865, by Major W. S. Basinger.	38
IV. Miss Emma Sansom—An Alabama Heroine. With an Account of the Capture of Colonel A. D. Streight by Gen. N. B. Forrest, and Details; by Gen. D. H. Maury.	45
V. James Louis Petigru. A Sketch by W. L. Miller	55
VI. Gettysburg Failure—Some Deductions as to, by R. M. Stribling	60
VII. The Hampton Roads' Conference. A Conclusive Statement by Hon. J. H. Reagan	68
VIII. The Charge of the Crater. An Account by Colonel W. H. Stewart	77
IX. Gen. T. J. Jackson. An Address by Dr. Hunter McGuire.	91
X. The Richmond, Va., Ambulance Corps	113
XI. The Career of the Shenandoah, C. S. Navy	118
XII. The Signal Service Corps, C. S. A. by A. M. Taft	130
XIII. Burning of Richmond, April 3, 1865, by Col. R. T. W. Duke,	134
XIV. Retreat from Richmond. Reminiscences of Crutchfield's Artillery Brigade, by Captain T. B. Blake	139
XV. Tribute to General P. M. B. Young, C. S. A	146
XVI. Historical Sketch of the 23d N. C. Infantry, by H. C. Wall,	151
XVII. History of the Rockbridge 2d Dragoons, by J. S. Moore	177
XVIII. Sketch of Colonel E. Waggaman, 10th Louisiana Infantry, C. S. A	180
XIX. James Murray Mason. A Tribute by H. A. Wise	186
XX. R. M. T. Hunter. An Address by Col. L. Q. Washington,	193
XXI. Letter from General Beauregard to General Wise as to the Crisis of the Confederacy, May 14, 1864.	206
XXII. Malvern Hill. An Address by Hon. John Lamb	208
XXIII. The Slaughter at Petersburg June 18, 1864. Reminiscences of, by Judge William M. Thomas	222

160267

XXIV. Sam Davis—A Southern Martyr. With lines to, by Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox..... 231
XXV. Boy Heroes of Cold Harbor—Account of, by Colonel E. McCrady 234
XXVI. How General Custer hung Mosby's Men..... 239
XXVII. History of the 38th N. C. Infantry, by Col. G. W. Flowers, 245
XXVIII. Roster and Record of Company D, 21st Virginia Infantry.. 264
XXIX. Evacuation of Richmond—Days Preceding and Closing Scenes of, by Colonel J. H. Averill..... 267
XXX. Roll and Record of the Sussex Light Dragoons, by Captain W. N. Blow..... 273
XXXI. Maryland Campaign—Boonsboro Fight, by G. W. B..... 276
XXXII. Roster and Career of the 2d Rockbridge Battery. Compiled by W. F. Johnston 281
XXXIII. Retreat from Richmond. Details by Captain T. B. Blake.. 285
XXXIV. Richmond Fayette Artillery—Its Movement on New Berne, N. C., in 1864, by E. W. Gaines..... 288
XXXV. Sketch of J. P. Benjamin, by H. T. Ezekiel..... 297
XXXVI. The Private Soldier. An Address by Col. R. T. Bennett.. 302
XXXVII. Incidents in the Career of General T. J. Jackson, by General D. H. Maury..... 309
XXXVIII. C. S. Senator, T. J. Semmes—An Evening with..... 317
XXXIX. Sketch of 44th N. C. Infantry, by C. M. Stedman..... 334
XL. General R. E. Colston—A Tribute to and Plea for the memory of..... 346
XLI. Ode by General R. E. Colston..... 352
XLII. Birth-Day of General R. E. Lee, January 19, 1898—Observances of, with Address by Captain R. T. Parks..... 354
XLIII. List of Virginians under Confederate Fire on Morris Island, 1864, with Details of Hardships Endured 365
XLIV. J. P. Benjamin—Further Details as to..... 378
XLV. How President Lincoln was Brought to Free the Slaves.... 380
XLVI. The Confederate Dead—A Poem by A. C. Gordon..... 382

NOTE.—The foot-note at page 105, added by the Editor, it seems, refers to a similar incident to that given in the text, which was witnessed by Dr. McGuire. He, and others cited by him, were not at South Mountain, September, 1862.